On a foul night in Bexley more than 28 runners set off to be greeted by thunder, lightning and a wet snow storm for a few minutes.
All but one person stayed out for the full hour to achieve scores between 4 and 21 points. As on previous years, the Foots Cray controls were worth double points in an attempt to coax the runners off the streets but as it was rather muddy and deep standing water in places few of them were tempted.
Those who stayed afterwards were able to sample the culinary delights of Mrs Cave-Ayland who had spent many a happy hour slaving over hot chilli and rice
My thanks go to Cambridge Harriers for the use of their facilities (very much appreciated on such a rough night) and to those who helped to put out and collect controls: Keith Parkes, Neil Speers, Steve Waite, Fiona Wilson and Jean Fitzgerald.
The winning route was: 66, 74, 91, 95, 97, 96, 93, 94, 92, 71, 75, 68, 62, 64
